EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with attorney William Ellis on May 6, 2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, starting on line 2, "that may or may not mandate store-distributor relationships in a supply chain," has been deleted.

In claim 7, starting on line 2, "that may or may not mandate store-distributor relationships in a supply chain," has been deleted.

In claim 13, starting on line 2, "that may or may not mandate store-distributor relationships in a supply chain," has been deleted.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-18 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a system for order confirmation in an independent supply chain management system, wherein the supply chain management system automatically generates an order form for additional store inventory, which is based on the store sales data not a request from the store. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features "the independent supply chain management system generates an electronic order form based on data relating to store sales, sends the order form to a distributor, the order form requesting a confirmation of receipt, and generates an alert if it is determined that a confirmation of receipt is not received." The closest prior art Sharp et al. (6,263,317 B1) discloses an electronic system wherein a customer can place an order for products using an electronic order form and receives an order confirmation from the system after providing payment information, but fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
